It's that time again to mark your calendar! Southeastway Park has many fun and educational events scheduled for the upcoming year. Please call the park office for more information.

Open for rental reservations

January 14

Shelters are the perfect place for family reunions, church picnics or birthday parties. Call today to reserve your facility for the summer.

Summer Camp registration begins

January 28

Maple Syrup Season

February 18 – March 15

Southeastway Park Staff offers tours of a sugar bush where participants will learn the anatomy of a sugar maple tree, the history of maple syrup making, see the syrup making process and taste the results! Call to schedule a program.

Homeschool Maple Syrup Day

February 26

10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

We've set aside a day just for homeschool groups. Pre-registration is required and this program is for ages 4 and up. Please no infants/strollers/toddlers on the trail. We will be outside for about an hour, be sure to dress for the weather. $4 per participant.

Public Maple Syrup Day

March 9

Offered on the weekend so families don't miss out on the fun! Classes are at 1 p.m. and at 3:30 p.m. Space is limited so pre-registration required. $4 per participant ages 4 and up.

Girl Scout Maple Syrup Day

March 10

Please register through the Girl Scout website: www.girlscoutsindiana.org. Classes are at 1 p.m. and at 3:30 p.m. Preregistration required. Girls will receive a fun patch.

Educational Programs

April, May and August thru November

Southeastway park offers several educational programs for your homeschool, scout, youth and school groups. Popular topics include Habitats, Insects, Birds, Signs of Spring/Fall, Pioneers and Their Plants and many more. Programs can be tailored to meet your needs and meet state standards.

Girl Scout Nature Badge Days

April 20 and September 7

times vary

Habitats for Juniors (April), Bugs for Brownies (Sept.) and Tree for Cadettes (Sept.). Register through the Girl Scout website: www.girlscoutsindiana.org. Preregistration required. Girls will receive badge at the end of the program.

Garlic Mustard Pull

April 27

2-4 p.m.

Garlic mustard is an invasive plant that chokes out the native wildflowers. Every spring we pull it out to maintain wildflower diversity. This could be a great Community Service Project for your youth group.

Summer Day Camps

May 28 – August 2

Camps focus on environmental education through hands-on outdoor activities and are aimed at ages 4-15.

Hayride Reservations Begin

August 12

9 a.m.

Bug Fest

August 25

1-5 p.m.

Hayride Season

September 28 – November 2

Hayrides are a wonderful way to celebrate fall in Indiana. A hayride package consists of a 3 hour use of a shelter, a campfire and a tractor-pulled hayride.

Activity Center available to rent

November, December and January

The Activity Center at Southeastway Park has a large fireplace and enough seating for over 60. It is an ideal location for your holiday party, staff retreat or any group get together. $55 per hour with a 3-hour minimum.
